

Submissions to the Community Calendar should be emailed or delivered to Bill Crabtree at least one month prior to the event. Additional notice is recommended to maximize event exposure. Include the event name, date, time, and location, as well as any additional relevant information.

Communications Toolbox

The Town of Wake Forest strives to communicate its goals and activities to residents and to assist them in accessing needed information. To this end, the Town has developed a communications toolbox designed to keep you informed about what's happening in your community.

Town News

Town News at www.wakeforestnc.gov/news_index.aspx is your one-stop source for Wake Forest news and information. With the click of your "mouse," you gain instant access to both recent and archived press releases, the Community Calendar, as well as the latest editions of E-News and the Town Manager's weekly Weblog. But that's not all! Town News also shares everything you need to know about Community Channel 10, plus much more!

Community Calendar

Here's where you'll find what's happening in Wake Forest. Bookmark www.wakeforestnc.gov/community_calendar.aspx for easy access to dates, times, and overviews about upcoming programs, activities, and special events.

E-News

E-News makes it easier than ever to know what's going on around town. Visit the homepage of the Town of Wake Forest website and sign up to receive our free E-Newsletter. Once you're registered, we'll send E-News directly to your inbox each month. We'll also email you occasional E-Alerts designed to give you a heads-up on area road construction, planned power outages, important meetings, and all kinds of other community activities and events. By signing up for E-News, you'll always be the first to know!

Town Manager's Weblog

Visit www.wakeforestnc.gov/townmanagerblog.aspx every Friday as Town Manager Mark Williams shares his thoughts on the week's happenings in and around Wake Forest.

Community Channel 10

Community Channel 10 is Wake Forest's government cable channel. Watch it daily for news and the latest on programs, services, upcoming meetings, and special events sponsored by the Town of Wake Forest. Channel 10 is also an excellent source for information concerning programs and classes offered by the Wake Forest Parks & Recreation Department.
